Customer agrees to the following terms and conditions regarding High Country Disposal's Commercial Containers:

1. Considerations for loading:

- A. All materials must be at or below top of bin. Lids must close. Overfull containers will incur an additional charge.
- B. No concrete, sod, dirt, rocks, bricks, composition roofing or heavy metal objects.
- C. No hazardous materials or liquid waste accepted, including paint, solvents and medical waste.
- D. Materials that might stick to inside of container (esp: mortar, caulking, etc.) must be bagged.
- E. Tires cannot go in container. Please set beside container and call for special pick-up.
- F. No computers, computer components or TVs accepted.

2. Site Considerations:

- A. Containers must be placed in level, smooth, hard surfaces with clear access for the truck and operators. It is the customer's responsibility to keep area cleared for access, for example snow removal, cars, etc. If driver has to clear area, additional fees may be charged.
- B. Containers must be located away from overhead power and other lines.
- C. Place wood under container wheels and stands if risk of damage to surface.
- D. Do not attempt to move the container. Contact High Country Disposal if you need the container relocated on the property.

3. Container Damage:

- A. In case of fire or excessive container damage, the replacement or repair cost will be the responsibility of the customer and will be charged back to the customer.

Customer will indemnify and hold High Country Disposal harmless from any and all liability of any kind resulting from the use by the customer and said container and from the placement of said container at the stated address. The customer assumes liability for damages to public or private property, hard surface road or driveways, which might occur. Customer also agrees to pay any expense incurred by High Country Disposal to enforce this agreement such as court, collections, and attorney fees.
